Church Of Space Presents: Nu Nu Kids OFF The Block

1 NFT ONE 3:37

Look at the gif I just made — now it's time to get paid
It's a hot new craze and a wild charade
Money for nothing like dire straits
Sang in 85 now pump your brakes
All it takes is enough computers
To equal all the power users
In Argentina or the Netherlands
To buy these works of art I scanned
Through the blockchain to the blocked brains
Of people putting value on the most insane
Things I could right click and own em right quick
Who needs the receipt? Now peep this mind trick
It's a token that can't be copied
Cuz all these folks are out to watch me
I mean computers where most polluters
Are off the hook to be the looters
Of resources to cause divorces
Of you and your paycheck to show off a game set
Piece you've been fleeced and it's not even golden
Non-fungible tokens will be leaving you broke and
You must be smoking if you're really hoping

That me spending loot is something I'm open
To do for pixels — bits and bytes
Just to prove I can click the rights

How many fields need their play leveled
Industrial complex versus the rebels
Get all excited cause someone's provided
Another grand scheme to keep at bay pirates
I just think it's ridiculous — if it's online — it's mine with just
Some clicks and cables — all the fables
For what's secure and proof of pure
Ownership without clones and rips
Making a list of bones to pick
Know the grip on any creation
Made digital is out there waiting
For it to get got without being bought
The fungible wonderful — non it's not
Tokens are for Chuck E. Cheese so please
The virtual world is always on its knees
If meddling teens can make their own keys
And other governments interfere with ease
Then it's time to stop making if you're worried bout taking
Fire walled world if it's all about raking

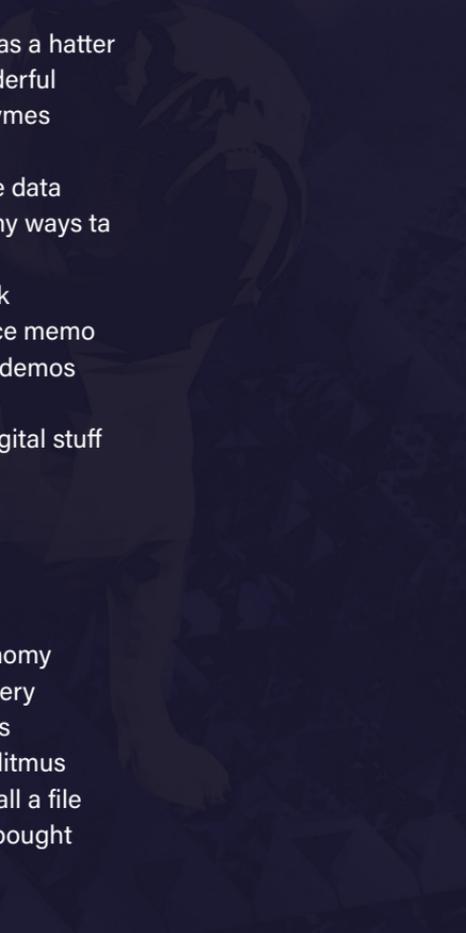

In the bit dollars that don't make sense
Internet extinction level event

2 NFT TOO 4:00

Receipts for groceries — receipts for gas
Drive around and eat and all that lasts
Is that receipt — which I could eat
It wouldn't be a treat — but it would delete
The only proof that it ever happened
Well the CO2 and the pile of crap can
Also be measured if you can find em
Make a machine for time rewinding

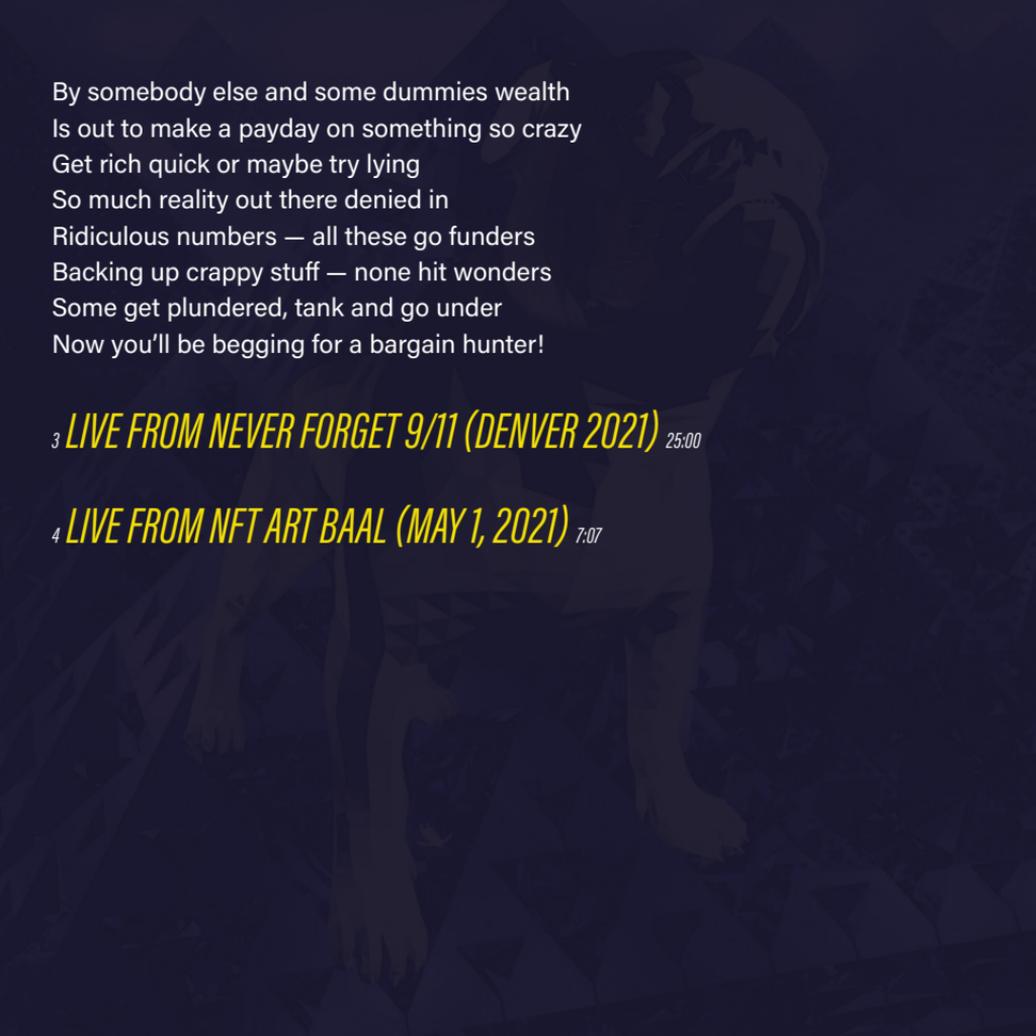

Now I've made a song and I put it on
The internet just to get some attention
It got downloaded and sometimes streamed
Is it still mine if I give it out free?
To anybody with the link and a right click
If I take it off the site do you think that it might get Forgotten or bought when I'm not looking
Could it ever be removed or am I just screwed?

So now the meat of the matter am I mad as a hatter
To think a non fungible — token is a wonderful
Way to keep tabs on a beat and these rhymes
Really get paid for repeats and each time
The buck gets passed in exchange for the data
That anyone can own if they clone — many ways ta
Copy this track — if you can playback
Line out to a tape deck — make an 8 track
Stream it to a friend's phone with the voice memo
Like the way the majors nowadays make demos
N O P then the E for enough
There's always workarounds to get the digital stuff
Criminals, luck and peer to peer
To snag up the candy for eyes and ears
A unique receipt — title or deed
Won't mean jack squat if it's already free

If you're out to get paid in the digital economy
The next new thing that guarantees a lottery
Windfall to spin all heads to your business
Just cause you witnessed a few pass the litmus
Test — it's still volatile — just cause you call a file
Something it's not — can be copied and bought

By somebody else and some dummies wealth
Is out to make a payday on something so crazy
Get rich quick or maybe try lying
So much reality out there denied in
Ridiculous numbers — all these go funders
Backing up crappy stuff — none hit wonders
Some get plundered, tank and go under
Now you'll be begging for a bargain hunter!
