DUST ON WAX (GGG MIXX)
FEATURING
P.U.C.K.

So the Dust On Wax saga just wasn't able to rest, even with already having mixes from the OG DOZ mix to the Bigga Thomas mixes and scads of other versions from some derelict matching my height, weight and general appearance, plus a video, it just wasn't enough. This is thanks to a blast of inspiration that was inadvertently casted in my direction, after coming across a video put together by the super cool Tripple G aka GGG (Good Girl, Grow), a vid that falls in the super hottness bracket.

Well, GGG's bgm in the vid had some sweet sounds unheard by cheese ears. After using an app to identify the source of the tune, 647 by the electro/ambient artist Instupendo. I looked it up to DL and sample, but decided after having watched the vid a few times, to sample directly from there. This not only brought about a cobra hiss lo-fi effect, but also gave a chance to catch some subtle GGG sound bites in parts that were scissorred up for the composition. Also a live drum track that is low in the mix expanded on the loose feel. This incarnation of DOW mirrors the Chain Breaka Mix line up with The Patches kickin' off the first verse, followed up by DOZ, myself and Pot-C.

The cut hook was also special for this mix, using a Kool Keith cut where he uses the words "dust to dust", unfortunately it was used in context to throw shade on Kool Moe Dee, but I guess Keith has the authority to do so, well they are both legends in my books. Has anyone ever rambled on this long in a track description? And finally, to make this the bestest, I was actually able to get in touch with GGG, and get her OK on using the soundbites, which ultimately fortified the title of this version of Dust On Wax as the GGG MIXX!
