1 THREE MORE HOURS (FEATURING KETSA) 2:19

(Intro Refrain)

I woke up feeling like going back to bed
So I pulled the plush covers up over my head
I need three more hours of sleep and rest
Before I'm ready to return to the world

(Verse One)

From inside the cesspool, my days look dreary
When I'm gray like the sky, and my eyes look bleary
So I hit the snooze button the first time of many Because I'm tired, worn down, and worth less than a penny

You see, I need to find a little time and space alone
Before I get tangled up with what's on my phone
So I pull the sleep mask up to cover my eyes
And the world will have to wait for my reply

(Refrain)

Because I woke up feeling like going back to bed
So I pull the plush covers up over my head
I need three more hours of sleep and rest
Before I'm ready to return to the world

(Verse Two)

Now, I don't know how long I can hold them off
But I know this pillow feels warm and soft
And they could care less if it was filled with bricks
They just want to push me back out there in the mix
So, while they plan another sick type of scandalous scheme
I'll be living my life from inside of my dreams
And while they're cooking up some ill type of scandalous beef
I'll be locked away, sleeping underneath these sheets

(Refrain)

You see, I woke up feeling like going back to bed
So I pulled the plush covers up over my head
I need three more hours of sleep and rest
Before I'm ready to return to the world

(Outtro Refrain)

You see, I woke up feeling like going back to bed
So I pulled the plush covers up over my head
I need three more hours of sleep and rest
Before I'm ready to return to the world
